

4th Annual International Conference on Religion, Conflict, and Peace:
Walking the Talk to Compassion and Harmony

March 23-25, 2012 ~ Dearborn, Michigan

A multi-cultural, multi-disciplinary conference promoting Inter-religious and Intra-religious dialogue to explore the challenges of Extremism, Intolerance, Scapegoating, and Islamophobia, and the promise of Reason, Understanding, Compassion, and Harmony

Join a diverse gathering of over 40 presenters as we explore:

- The mutual dilemmas of religious ignorance, extremism, intolerance, negative stereotypes, demonization and dehumanization, scapegoating, and fear of "the other," that can lead to toxic divisiveness, polarization, and social paranoia, including a current example of Islamophobia.
and
- The promise of compassionate engagement and dialogue in nurturing a shared consciousness of peace to promote the religious experience as a healing remedy rather than problem.
